

Web Resources for Criminal Justice Majors

- The Blue Line: Monthly newsletter for public service job openings and a nice list of links to law enforcement sites and services. You will have to pay a registration fee, however.
- Student Jobs: We offer valuable job experience, training opportunities, and excellent benefits, with plenty of opportunity for advancement. Thousands of student opportunities posted!
- Law Enforcement Jobs: Founded in 1998 by a former Special Agent and recruiter with the United States Secret Service, LawEnforcementJobs.com® is the nation's most visited law enforcement employment website and the only resource of its kind to exclusively focus on law enforcement employment vacancies.
- interFIRE: A site dedicated to improving fire investigation. Also includes information about various Criminal Justice careers.
- USAJobs: The official job site of the United States Federal Government. It's your one-stop source for Federal jobs and employment information.
- U.S. Department of State Careers-Student Internships: We have a variety of programs, from summer clerical positions to management fellowships, all of which allow students from high school to the post-graduate level the ability to participate in projects vital to the success of U.S. foreign policy. Overseas or in Washington D.C., there's a student program that matches your background and will help you to achieve your goals.
- Vermont Police Training Council: Find Vermont agency listings, job opportunities, and information about the Vermont Police Academy trainings.

CJ Professional Associations:

- American Society of Criminology: The American Society of Criminology is an international organization whose members pursue scholarly, scientific, and professional knowledge concerning the measurement, etiology, consequences, prevention, control, and treatment of crime and delinquency.
- International Association of Police Chiefs: The International Association of Chiefs of Police is the world's oldest and largest nonprofit membership organization of police executives, with over 20,000 members in over 89 different countries. IACP's leadership consists of the operating chief executives of international, federal, state and local agencies of all sizes.
- American Correctional Association: Today, Corrections.com is the single most recognizable brand online for the global community of corrections. Award-winning daily news is at the core of our business, with the most comprehensive database of vendor intelligence in corrections.
- American Probation and Parole Association: The American Probation and Parole Association is an international association composed of members from the United States, Canada and other countries actively involved with probation, parole and community-based corrections, in both adult and juvenile sectors.
- American Bar Association: With more than 400,000 members, the ABA provides law school accreditation, continuing legal education, information about the law, programs to assist lawyers and judges in their work, and initiatives to improve the legal system for the public.

- Society for Police and Criminal Psychology: The Society for Police and Criminal Psychology is an eclectic professional organization that encourages the scientific study of police and criminal psychology and the application of scientific knowledge to problems in criminal justice.