At Champlain College, we believe that your success, job performance and personal happiness are enhanced when you gain the additional knowledge and skills you need to flourish in your federal service career.

That’s why we created truED.

truED is an exclusive opportunity for you to earn a certificate, bachelor’s or master’s degree in today’s most critical skills areas from a nationally recognized college. And because OPM is part of the truED alliance, you pay 70% less than the standard tuition at Champlain College.

The unique truED subscription model lets you earn your certificate or degree through affordable monthly payments.

Champlain College represents a true higher education experience that challenges you to learn the critical thinking, problem-solving and communication skills that will enhance your career.

NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED AND REGIONALLY ACCREDITED Champlain College is consistently ranked by US News & World Report and The Princeton Review as a leader in higher education. Numerous academic programs at Champlain College are recognized by leading organizations each year for their quality, innovation and affordability. Champlain College is regionally accredited which ensures that standards of academic quality are being met or exceeded.

Employees choose the subscription that fits their needs and earn a certificate or degree through low monthly subscription payments.

At Champlain College, we get to know your employees and work hard to ensure they get the credit they deserve—up to 90 credits—for on-the-job training, industry certifications, prior academic courses, military experience and more. We make your employees’ education goals our priority, and an entire team at Champlain College will make those goals achievable.
