

APPENDIX A:
Comparison of Enrollments in Vermont Higher Education Institutions

Enrollment of ethnically diverse students varies widely among higher educational institutions in Vermont, and Champlain College is about in the middle.

In general, state colleges (with the exception of the University) tend to enroll lower percentages of diverse students, while liberal arts colleges tend to enroll higher percentages. Looking at the full group of institutions, Champlain is right at the midpoint (median) of the group in terms of total number of ethnically diverse students enrolled, with 4.7%. Looking only at private institutions, Champlain is slightly below the midpoint (median) of 6.3%, but it is still within the range of the middle 50% of the group, which ranges from 3.1% to 8.6%.
