SUMMER BRIDGE PROGRAM DETAILS

The Summer Bridge program begins with an Orientation program on Sunday, June 30. Classes begin Monday, July 1. Students entering in both fall and spring must participate in the Bridge program. The 6-credit class, titled COR-130: Introduction to Interdisciplinary Studies, begins Monday, July 1. Students must participate in the Summer Bridge program if they wish to advance to their second year of the general education/Core curriculum and to have their 6 credits of college English count towards their degree program.

Please sign and check the box below if you do NOT wish to attend the Summer Bridge Program. *I understand that by NOT taking Cor-130, Introduction to Interdisciplinary Studies (Summer Bridge Program), I must start in the fall semester in the first year of the general education/core courses and this could impact my graduation date. In addition, I understand that I must take 2 semesters of college English, Rhetoric I & II at Champlain College even if I have taken college-level English courses previously..HOUSINGYou will find specific information about each residence hall at champlain.edu/accepts
