

WEB RESOURCES FOR COMMUNICATION

National Job Search Resources:

Hoover's Online

Career Shift

Nation Job

Career Builder

Juju

Career One Stop

GoinGlobal

Simply Hired

Monster

Career Jet

Bureau of Labor Statistics

Riley Guide

Indeed

Snag A Job

USA Jobs

Vermont Job Search Resources:

Vermont Job Link: Largest array of job opportunities across the state of Vermont.

Jobs in Vermont: Connecting Vermont job seekers and employers.

Seven Days: Local newspaper with a great online job board.

Craigslist: Part-time and freelance opportunities.

Burlington Free Press: Local newspaper with job listings.

Media Resources:

Creative Hot List: Customizable online application for connecting talent with companies and services.

Coroflot: Largest, most diverse pool of professional creative portfolios in the world.

Corporation for Public Broadcasting: Non-profit organization promoting public telecommunications services.

TV Jobs: Employment services for the broadcast marketplace.

Bay Area Video Coalition: Empowering media makers to develop and share diverse stories for social change.

Entertainment Career: Jobs, internships, and career information for the entertainment industry.

Show Biz Jobs: Leading brand in entertainment recruiting.

Team Work Online: Portal to sports jobs and internships with America's premier leagues.

Media Literacy Clearinghouse: Supports teaching standards for media literacy, non-print texts, and literacy skills.

GLAAD: Focused on accurate representation of the LGBTQ community in the media.

Alliance for a Media Literate America: Non-profit organization that supports media literacy education.

Association for Media Literacy: Non-profit dedicated to understanding the influence of the media on our culture.

Center for Media and Democracy: Independent, non-profit, non-partisan media and consumer watchdog group.

Center for Media Literacy: Provides leadership, public education, professional development, and educational resources internationally.

Public Relations/Marketing Resources:

SDX: San Diego's foremost media, marketing, and technology organization.

Publicity Club of New England: Offers annual educational programs to public relations veterans and novices.

Boston PRSA: Largest New England association of public relations professionals.

Talent Zoo: Search advertising, marketing, and media jobs as well as salary information and career advice.

Association of National Advertisements: Provides its members insights, collaboration, and advocacy.

PR Week Jobs: Largest advertising market place for products, services, and jobs in the public relations industry.

IHireMarketing: Search thousands of marketing jobs.

IProspect: Leading developer and manager of search engine optimization and paid search advertising campaigns.

Marketing Crossing: The largest collection of marketing jobs in the world.

National School Public Relations Association: Builds support for education through responsible public relations.

Public Relations Society of America: Nationwide community of public relations and communications professionals.

International Public Relations Institute: Non-profit that builds research-based knowledge in public relations.

National Council for Marketing & Public Relations: Represents marketing and public relations professionals at community and technical colleges.

International Public Relations Associations: Association for senior international public relations executives.

American Advertising Federation: Protects and promotes advertising while unifying the industry.

American Association of Advertising Agencies: Helps members offer expanded/improved services to their clients.

Advertising Age: Leading global source of news and conversation for marketing and media communities.

All About Public Relations: Tips, leads, and links for public relations professionals and job seekers.

Public Relations Journal: Open-access, peer-reviewed electronic research journal.

American Society of Media Photographers: Promotes professional practices, collaborations, and ethics.

Cable and Telecommunications Association for Marketing: Focuses on cable telecommunications marketing.

MullenLowe: Full-service advertising agency that works with the most innovative marketers.

Marketing Sherpa: Exclusive case studies, research, and training for the marketing industry.

Aquent: Pairs marketing and design specialists with challenging jobs to create productive partnerships.

Journal of Marketing Communications: Double-blind, peer-reviewed journal devoted to publishing information on marketing and corporate communication.

Westover Media: Company specializing in experimental marketing and promotions.

Adbusters: Non-profit magazine resisting the hostile takeover of our lives by commercial forces.

Communications Resources:

The American Communication Association: Studies new and evolving technologies to facilitate communication instruction, research, and criticism.

International Association of Business Communicators: Network of international communication professionals.

National Investor Relations Institute: Responsible for communication among the financial community.

Religion Communicators Council: Interfaith association of religion communication professionals.

Canadian Communication Association: Bilingual organization investigating communication challenges in Canada.

Center for the Study of Communication & Culture: Non-profit research association of scholars interested in a values-oriented approach to communication.

International Association for Media & Communication Research: Worldwide professional organization in the field of media and communication research.

World Communication Association: Promotes mutual understanding among people around the world.

Society for Technical Communications: Membership organization advancing technical communication.

Center for Communications: Exposing issues, ethics, and people who define the media business.

Federal Communications Commission: Government agency that regulates communications.

National Communication Association: Advances study of all forms, modes, and consequences of communication.

Communication Arts: Source of inspiration for everyone involved in visual communication.

Journalism/Writing Resources:

American Crime Writers League: Private writing forum for exchanging ideas.

American Society of Business Publication Editors: Professional association for editors and writers in the publishing industry.

Association for Education in Journalism & Mass Communication: Promoting high standards for journalism and mass communication education.

Journalism Education Association: Supports free and responsible scholastic journalism.

Military Reporters & Editors Association: Journalists advancing public understanding of military and defense.

National Association of Science Writers: Fosters the dissemination of accurate scientific information.

Education Writers Association: National professional organization of education reporters.

National Press Photographers Association: Advances visual journalism in all news media.

Online News Association: Organization for digital journalists connecting journalism, technology, and innovation.

Pew Research Center: Independent, non-partisan public opinion research organization that studies attitudes toward politics, the press, and public policy issues.

Poynter Institute: Pioneers of new reporting, design, photojournalism, graphics, and multimedia methods.

Radio-Television News Directors Association: Largest professional organization in the electronic news profession.

Religion Newswriters Foundation: Tools and tips for writing about religion with balance, accuracy, and insight.

Society of Environmental Journalists: Association of journalists dedicated to covering environmental issues.

Society of News Design: International organization for news media professionals and visual communicators.

Society of Professional Journalists: Organization encouraging a free press and high standards of ethical behavior.

Columbia Journalism Review: Encourages and stimulates excellence in journalism in the service of a free society.

Editor & Publisher: Journal covering all aspects of the North American newspaper industry.

First Amendment News: Forum for the study and exploration of free expression issues.

Indiana University Media School: Case studies created for teachers, researchers, professional journalists, and consumers of news to explore ethics in journalism.

News Media and the Law: Quarterly magazine on media law topics that affect journalists.

Accuracy in Media: Non-profit, grassroots citizen's watchdog of the news media.

Fairness & Accuracy in Reporting (FAIR): National media watchdog offering criticism of media bias and censorship.

Project Censored: Teaches students and the public about the role of a free press in a free society.