

WEB RESOURCES FOR FILMMAKING

National Job Search Resources:

Hoover's Online

Career Shift

Nation Job

Career Builder

Juju

Career One Stop

Simply Hired

Monster

Career Jet

Job Central

Bureau of Labor Statistics

Riley Guide

Indeed

Snag A Job

USA Jobs

Vermont Job Search Resources:

Vermont Job Link: Largest array of job opportunities across the state of Vermont.

Jobs in Vermont: Connecting Vermont job seekers and employers.

Seven Days: Local newspaper with a great online job board.

Craigslist: Part-time and freelance opportunities.

Burlington Free Press: Local newspaper with job listings.

Film Resources:

UpWork: Website with freelance work opportunities in a variety of fields.

Mandy.com: Job search site for entertainment professional.

New England Film and Video: Premier online resource and magazine for local film and video professionals.

Bay Area Video Coalition: Empowers media makers to develop and share diverse stories that create social change.

University Film and Video Association: Principal academic organizations for studying media. Holds an annual conference and publishes the Journal of Film and Video.

American Film Institute: National institute focused on screen education and celebrating media excellence.

Independent Film and Television Alliance: Trade association for the independent film and television industry.

Association of Independent Video and Filmmakers: Informs, promotes, encourages, and mobilizes independent and grassroots media-makers.

Motion Picture Association of America: Voice of the motion picture, home video, and television industry.

New York Women in Film and Television: Organization for professional women in the media.

The Academy of Motion Pictures & Sciences (Oscars): Honorary membership organization whose ranks now include more than 6,000 artists and professionals.

American Society of Cinematographers: Non-profit association dedicated to advancing the art of filmmaking.

Los Angeles Film Critics Association: Organization for LA-based critics who write for media.

National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (Emmys): Sponsors of the annual entertainment awards show.

Producers Guild of America: Represents the interest of all production teams.

Recording Musicians Association: Organization of film musicians offering educational events, advocacy, and networking opportunities.

Women Make Movies: Supports production, promotion, distribution, and exhibition of independent films by and about women.

Women's Media Group: Networking association for women working in media, publishing, journalism, film, television, and online media.

Association of Film Commissioners International: Organization for film commissioners who assist film, television, and video production throughout the world.

Massachusetts Film Bureau: Resource for filmmakers in the Bay State.

Maine Media Workshops: Summer film internships in Rockport, Maine.

Academy of Science Fiction, Fantasy and Horror: Recognizes excellence in television and home entertainment.

American Cinema Editors, Inc.: Honorary society of motion picture editors who are voted into membership based on professional achievements.

California Film Commission: Office for film and TV incentives, permitting, location assistance, and filming resources throughout California.

The City of New York Mayor's Office of Film, Theatre & Broadcasting: Provides all production needs in New York City including free permits, free exterior locations, and police assistance.

Colorado Film Commission: Helping filmmakers from all over find the resources they need to film in Colorado.

Florida Film Commission: Builds, supports, and markets Florida's entertainment industry.

Georgia Film & Videotape Office: Promotes the state as a location for film and video entertainment.

Greater Philadelphia Film Office: Provides producers free assistance with parking, permits, labor, and locations.

Metro Orlando Film & Television Commission: Promotes film development and production in Central Florida.

Maine Film Office: Helps bring film, television, and other media projects to Maine.

Society of Camera Operators: Advancing the art and creative contributions of camera operators.

Stuntmen's Association of Motion Pictures: Membership organization for the most experienced stuntmen.

New York Film Critics Circle: Film reviewers from New York-based publications who honor cinema excellence.

Independent Feature Project Headquarters: Educates members in the art, technology, and the business of independent filmmaking.

Hollywood Discovery Awards: Bridging the gap between Hollywood and the global creative community.

Industry Leaders:

Dreamworks SKG: Globally diverse group of artists, technologists, producers, and others who create movies.

Miramax Films: Provides audiences with quality, innovative, risk-taking films from the world's best filmmakers.

Paramount Pictures: America's oldest running movie studio.

Universal Studios: Develops, produces, and markets the best entertainment to a global audience.

Walt Disney: Leading international family entertainment and media enterprise.

Warner Bros: Global leader in the creation, production, distribution, licensing, and marketing of entertainment.

Film Festivals & Competitions:

Don and Gee Nicholl Fellowships in Screenwriting: International screenwriting competition established to identify new talent.

Montreal World Film Festival: Encourages cultural diversity and understanding through competitive film festival.

Chicago International Film Festival: Annual festival showcasing the greatest directors and cinematic stories.

Seattle International Film Festival: Brings people together to discover extraordinary films.

SlamDance Film Festival: Premieres new films by first-time writers and directors working with limited budgets.

Sundance Film Festival: Discovers, supports, and inspires independent film and theater artists globally.

Vermont International Film Festival: Features independent films with artistic and social relevance.

WorldFest Houston International Film Festival: One of the oldest and largest film competitions in the world.

Cannes Film Festival: Festival that allows budding filmmakers to emerge.

Tokyo International Film Festival: Plays an integral role in Japan's film industry and cultural scene.

Toronto International Film Festival: Presents the best of international and Canadian cinema to film lovers.

Tribeca Film Festival: Provides artists with unique platform to expand the audience for their works.

Venice Film Festival: Prestigious event worldwide due to the quality of its selection and the recent refurbishing of its historic buildings and technological supplies.