Join Deans and faculty from the Robert P. Stiller School of Business, the Division of Communication & Creative Media, the School of Social Innovation, the Division of Information Technology & Sciences, and the Game Studio for an introduction to our distinctive career-focused majors, specializations, and minors. You will also get to hear about our innovative Core Curriculum during each presentation.

Sessions will be broken out by academic division. To find the division your program is in, please refer to the list on page 1. Pick a division that sounds interesting and see if it's the right fit.
