Understanding Your Financial Aid Award

In this Resource Guide, you will find information regarding the various categories of awards listed on your Financial Aid Award letter. To help guide you, we've also included loan comparisons, costs, payment options, and contact information, as well as data that points to the value of Champlain's career-focused education.

Your Financial Aid Award

The federal and state aid included in your award letter is based on the most recent information you provided on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Changes you make to your FAFSA data could impact your awards. If your FAFSA is selected by the federal government for verification, your federal and state aid is not final until you have submitted the required documentation and your file has been reviewed. You will receive a revised award letter if any of your awards change.

Award Types

Financial Aid awards are broken into three categories:

Scholarships & Grants page 02

Loans pages 03-04

Federal Work-Study page 04

The following pages describe each award type in detail.

Scholarships & Grants

Champlain College Scholarships: Champlain offers a number of institutionally funded awards to full-time undergraduate students on the basis of academic strength and financial need. These awards do not have to be repaid. And, with our Count-On-It Financial Aid Guarantee, you can count on the full amount of your Champlain scholarships being renewed from year to year as long as you are enrolled full time. Vermont First and Pathway scholarship recipients must remain in campus housing to qualify for the full award. Funds are posted to the student's account each semester following enrollment verification, which generally occurs after the second week of the semester.

Champlain Endowed Scholarships: These scholarships are funded by gifts from donors and foundations and are awarded to students who meet the donors' designated criteria. Qualifications and award amounts vary, but the determination of the award is generally based on financial need.

A complete list of awards and criteria is available at champlain.edu/finaid. Students who receive endowed scholarships are required to complete a survey from the Office of Advancement in order to provide donors with information about the recipient of the award. Funds are posted to the student's account each semester following enrollment verification, which generally occurs after the second week of the semester.

Federal Pell Grant: The Pell Grant does not have to be repaid. Pell Grant eligibility and the amount of the grant are based on the FAFSA Expected Family Contribution (EFC). Funds are posted to the student's account each semester following enrollment verification, which generally occurs after the second week of the semester.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG): The SEOG is awarded to Pell Grant recipients with exceptional financial need and does not have to be repaid. Funds are posted to the student's account each semester following enrollment verification, which generally occurs after the second week of the semester.

Vermont State Grant Estimate: The Vermont State Grant is a need-based award administered by the Vermont Student Assistance Corporation (VSAC) to Vermont residents and does not have to be repaid. The amount listed on your award letter is Champlain College's estimate of your VSAC award and is subject to change. Final award amounts are determined by VSAC based on financial need and state appropriations. Funds are posted to the student's account after enrollment is verified and payment is received from VSAC.

To receive funding, the student must complete a Vermont Grant application at vsac.org.

State Grant Estimates (Non-Vermont): Residents of other states should contact their own state grant agency to complete any required forms and to determine possible eligibility. State grant amounts listed on your award letter are Champlain College's estimate of your state grant eligibility and are subject to change. Final award amounts are determined by your state grant agency based on financial need and state appropriations. Funds are posted to the student's account after enrollment is verified and payment is received from your state grant agency.

Loans

Federal Direct Loans: Direct Loans are federal student loans that must be repaid. The interest rate for Direct Loans disbursed after July 1, 2020, will be a fixed rate, determined in June 2020, based on the 10-year treasury note plus 2.05%. The interest rate for the 2019-2020 academic year was 4.53%, with a fee of 1.059% deducted from the loan amount at disbursement. Direct Loan payments are deferred while the student is enrolled at least half-time, and there is a six-month grace period after the student graduates, withdraws, or drops below half-time before loan payments begin. The loan offers multiple repayment plan options.

- ▶ Federal Subsidized Loans: The federal government pays the interest on this loan while the student is enrolled at least half-time or during times of authorized deferment. Federal Subsidized Loans are awarded to undergraduate students based on financial need and grade level.
- ▶ Federal Unsubsidized Loans: Students are responsible for paying the interest that accumulates after the loan is disbursed. The interest can be paid while in school or the accrued interest will be capitalized (added to the principal balance). Federal Unsubsidized Loans are awarded based on grade level, and financial need is not considered.

Direct Loans are processed by the Office of Financial Aid for the maximum amount you are eligible to receive, as stated on the award letter. If you wish to borrow less, return the award letter to the Office of Financial Aid and indicate the reduced amount. Funds are posted to the student's account each semester following enrollment verification, which generally occurs after the second week of the semester.

- Requirements for new borrowers: New Direct Loan borrowers at Champlain College are required to complete Entrance Counseling and a Loan Agreement for a Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan (MPN). Visit studentloans.gov to complete Entrance Counseling and a Loan Agreement (MPN).

Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan: The Direct Parent PLUS Loan provides a borrowing option for parents of dependent undergraduate students. Direct Parent PLUS Loans are federal loans that must be repaid. The student's initial award letter indicates the maximum amount of Direct Parent PLUS Loan the parent may be eligible to borrow. The loan is subject to credit approval, and the parent must complete the application process outlined below in order to be approved for the loan and to use the loan to pay the student's expenses.

- ▶ To borrow the Federal Parent PLUS Loan the parent borrower must apply for the loan by logging in at studentloans.gov using their FSA ID. To be considered for approval, the borrower must complete the links "Apply for a PLUS Loan" and "Complete a Loan Agreement for a PLUS Loan (MPN)." The loan must be newly requested and approved each year that the parent wishes to borrow. The Loan Agreement (MPN) is valid for 10 years after it has been completed. Requests for the 2020-2021 loan year will be accepted beginning in late spring of 2020.

The interest rate for Direct Parent PLUS Loans disbursed after July 1, 2020, will be a fixed rate, determined in June 2020, based on the 10-year treasury note plus 4.6%. The interest rate for the 2019-2020 academic year was 7.08% with a fee of 4.236% deducted from the loan amount at disbursement. The maximum amount a parent may borrow is the cost of attendance minus any other financial aid the student receives. Funds are posted to the student's account each semester following enrollment verification, which generally occurs after the second week of each semester. Repayment typically begins after the loan is fully disbursed (paid out); however, repayment can be deferred while the student is enrolled at least half-time.

Private Education Loans: Student loans from private lenders can serve as an additional resource. Given interest rates and loan provisions, families are urged to maximize federal student loans and review the Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan before pursuing private loans. Private education loans are credit-based and require the student and cosigner to meet the credit approval criteria established by the lender. Selecting a private education loan and lender is a personal decision.

The Office of Financial Aid strongly recommends researching private education loans and lenders before completing a loan application online or signing any loan paperwork. Research should include a comparison of interest rates, fees, repayment terms, and the level of customer service provided by the lender. If a student chooses to borrow this loan, applications may be completed online with the lender for the amount required for the academic year. Once the loan application is submitted, the lender reviews it and may request additional information. The Office of Financial Aid is notified by the lender once the loan is approved. The Office of Financial Aid then confirms the student is eligible to borrow the loan amount requested and adds the loan to the student's financial aid award.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy

Federal regulations require that Champlain College review the academic progress of students who receive federal financial aid. The process takes place at the end of each semester (fall, spring, and summer). Refer to our website (champlain.edu/SAP) for a full description of the Satisfactory Academic Progress policy.

Federal Work-Study

Federal Work-Study (FWS) allows students with financial need to secure a job, usually on campus, and receive a paycheck for hours worked. FWS wages are paid directly to students biweekly, and the award amount is not deducted from the student's bill. Information on how to secure a FWS job will be distributed in the summer.

Our Phenomenal Career Outcomes

Champlain graduates dive into jobs they love quickly after graduation (and sometimes even before!). Our primary mission is to provide you with a career-focused and relevant education. And the good news? It works: A look at the numbers shows that, for our graduates, our approach pays off big-time.

All Schools & Divisions Class of 2018 Career Outcomes

Statistics are based on data collected from 89% of all undergraduates in the Class of 2018 six months post-graduation. According to the National Association of Colleges and Employers (NACE), the standard reporting from most colleges with similar profiles to Champlain is only 64% of the graduating class.

| Deferment Options | Direct Parent PLUS Loan borrowers may defer payments based on the enrollment status of the dependent student. For complete Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan deferment options, including Unemployment and Economic Hardship Deferments, go to studentaid.ed.gov . | No deferment options available. Limited options to temporarily suspend or temporarily reduce payments, depending on the lender. (See the Repayment section in this chart.) |
| Death & Disability | Loan cancellation or discharge is available upon death or total and permanent disability of the borrower or student. | Loan cancellation or discharge is determined by the lender. Most private education loans do not have a loan cancellation or discharge option. |

Billing, Payment Options & Refunds

Tuition, fees, and on-campus room and board are billed by semester. Fall 2020 semester bills are due August 1, 2020, and Spring 2021 semester bills are due December 1, 2020. The following payment methods are available, in any combination, to assist in covering the cost of your Champlain College education.

For more information and updates, visit champlain.edu/pay-bill.

Payment Options

1. Payment In Full: Champlain's Touchnet billing system offers students and their families the ability to make payments by electronic check or credit card on a secure online network. Please note: Credit and debit card users will be assessed a 2.75% fee.

2. 10- or 8-Month Tuition Payment Plan: Champlain College offers the flexibility to pay billable costs through either a 10- or 8-month payment plan. The 10-month plan begins in May 2020 and the 8-month in July 2020. Both plans end in February 2021. There is a small enrollment fee, and payments are interest-free. Plan information is mailed to all students in April.

3. Tuition Prepayment Plan: The Champlain College Tuition Prepayment Plan allows families of full-time, traditional undergraduate students to prepay up to four years of full-time tuition. The plan will stabilize full-time tuition at the 2020-2021 rate. By prepaying full-time tuition, families will be exempt from future increases in tuition for the duration of their plan. Payment from the plan will automatically be credited to the student's account for tuition each semester. Any funds that are unused due to early graduation or a student leaving Champlain College will be refunded. The deadline for Fall 2020 enrollment forms and payment in full is August 1, 2020. You may complete a Tuition Prepayment form located online at champlain.edu/paymentplans.

Student Refunds

Students whose financial aid award overpays their student account balance for the semester will receive a refund from the Office of Student Accounts. Refunds are issued after the student's enrollment is confirmed, usually after the second week of the semester. We encourage students to enroll in electronic deposit to their bank account for overpayments. To sign up, log in to WebAdvisor, click "Students," click "Bank Information" at the bottom under the e-Checks section, and complete the online form. Students who do not enroll for electronic refunds will be issued a check.

Cost of Attendance Budget

The student budgets listed below represent an estimate of the total cost to attend Champlain College during the Fall 2020 and Spring 2021 semesters for traditional undergraduate students enrolled full time.

The budgets vary based on a student's living arrangement and include the actual cost of tuition and the activity fee, a standard amount for room and board, and allowances for the typical cost of books, personal expenses, transportation to and from campus, and loan fees. Students are billed only for tuition, the activity fee, and room and board (when living in campus housing).

| Budget for Living: | On Campus | Off Campus | With Parents |
|--|------------------|-------------------|---------------------|
| Tuition | $42,564 | $42,564 | $42,564 |
| Student Activity & Health Fee | $220 | $220 | $220 |
| Room & Board | $16,362 | $11,738 | $5,050 |
| Books | $1,000 | $1,000 | $1,000 |
| Personal Expenses | $938 | $938 | $938 |
| Transportation | $1,068 | $1,068 | $1,068 |
| Average Loan Fees | $72 | $72 | $72 |
| Total Budget | $62,224 | $57,600 | $50,912 |

In addition to the billed costs listed above, new students are billed a one-time fee of $220. Certain majors are charged a program-specific lab fee. Students are also required to enroll in the College's health insurance plan unless covered by another policy.

The total cost of attendance figures above also represent the maximum amount of financial aid a student can receive from all sources, including Champlain College aid, student loans, Federal Work-Study, outside scholarships, employer tuition benefits, and any other aid from outside sources. Study-abroad costs, dependent care expenses, and the one-time purchase of a computer can also be added to the budget at the student's request.

Next Steps for New Students

Respond to your offer of admission to Champlain College by reserving your spot and officially becoming a Champlain student:

Enrollment Deposit

Your first step is to submit your secure online payment for your enrollment deposit at champlain.edu/fall-deposit for students starting in August 2020, or champlain.edu/spring-deposit for students starting in January 2021.

Payment Plans

The Tuition Payment Plans for the 2020–2021 academic year begin in May and July 2020. Families have the option to pay all or a portion of the student’s bill over 10 or 8 months. More information will be available in April 2020 at champlain.edu/paymentplans.

Federal Loan Entrance Counseling

Complete Entrance Counseling at studentloans.gov by July 1 if you’re borrowing the Direct Loans listed in your award letter.

Loan Agreement (MPN)

Complete the Loan Agreement for a Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan (MPN) at studentloans.gov by July 1 if you’re borrowing the Direct Loans listed in your award letter.

Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan Applications

For parents planning to borrow the Direct Parent PLUS Loan to cover all or a portion of the student’s bill, go to studentloans.gov, log in with parent FSA ID, complete “Apply for a PLUS Loan,” and “Complete Loan Agreement for a PLUS Loan (MPN).” (Refer to pages 03–04 for additional loan details.) The loan must be approved by July 1 to be included in the initial online billing statement, or it must be approved by August 1 to be used to resolve your bill on time. (Note: The approval process for 2020–2021 will not be available until late spring 2020.)

Billing Dates

Bills will be posted online for each semester. The Fall billing due date is August 1.

Work-Study Employment

Students with a Federal Work-Study award should begin monitoring their Champlain email account in July for instructions regarding the process for securing a job.

We're Here to Help!

We know the college admission process can be a little overwhelming. Champlain's Office of Financial Aid helps students understand the options available and the process of applying for scholarships, grants, loans, payment plans, and employment opportunities. Our staff is always available for in-person or phone appointments with students and families.

A lot like this. American higher education would be better off if more colleges tried to replicate what's going on here.”
